ISSN: 0352-3608

The journal Social Science Forum (Družboslovne razprave) was first published in 1984. It publishes double-blind peer reviewed articles in Slovenian and English languages in the fields of sociology, media studies, political science, cultural studies and other studies which are close to these fields. Additionally, it publishes book reviews, mostly of social science books published in Slovenian language. The journal is published three times (April, September and December) a year. Articles published in the journal have to be characterized by high level of research originality and address the topics that are relevant to the scientific community in which the journal is grounded and should correspond to the global research trends in the field of social sciences. The journal fosters theoretical and methodological diversity, i.e. it publishes contributions drawing on different traditions in social sciences. Social Science Forum (Družboslovne razprave) is published by the Slovenian Sociological Association and the Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Ljubljana.
